Growth, CRO, and marketing analytics professional with 10+ years across e-commerce, tech, and consulting. Today I lead e-commerce and marketing at Da Capo, a women's fashion brand I built from the ground up and run with a lean team, amplified by custom AI systems (Claude Code/Codex) that I built. My 10+ years in CRO, growth, and analytics are what let me direct and audit those systems: knowing what to ask for, what to measure, and what "good" looks like. B.A. in Business Administration from PUC-Rio.
